AT THE ORPHEUM.

The Orpheum presents a new bill today featuring the Lutz brothers, armless wonders; Kennedy, Nobody and Platt, comedy singers and talkers; the great Howard, Scotland's premier ventriloquist, in "A Day at the Dentist"; Zeno and Mandel, versatile, and the three American girls, in songs, dances and comedy chatter. With a variety of well balanced acts, performers of recognized merit and a high class and diversified entertainment the large attendance which has been maintained during the past weeks should be continued.

THE AUDITORIUM.

That funny comedian, Charles Chaplin, is one of the features at the Auditorium today, appearing in his latest release, "In the Park." The series of mishaps that happen to the various characters in the picture are bound to keep the spectators shouting with laughter. "From Headquarters," a three-act Vitaphone drama with Anita Stewart and Earl Williams, is another big feature, telling a clever story. Driven to the point of desperation when her employer-cousin casts her off for another girl, Rose Peters, stabs him. Her father is an officer of the law, and when he discovers, upon investigation, that his own daughter is the guilty one, he realizes for the first time the tremendous impulse which sometimes prompts a person to commit a crime. That, however, does not interfere with his sense of duty, and he is about to arrest the girl when, from headquarters comes the word to drop further investigation. "Mazie Puts One Over" is a Lubin comedy featuring Ethel Clayton and Joseph Kaufman and "The Railroad Raiders of '62" is one of the Hazards of Helen series featuring Helen Holmes. The survivors of the civil war still remember the exploits of that daring band of Union soldiers, the Andrews raiders. In '62 a force of volunteers, led by Capt. Andrews penetrated the Confederate lines, stole an engine and a car, and raised havoc before they were finally cornered and captured, and the above picture is founded on this story. Tomorrow a beautiful picture will be shown, "The Arrival of Perpetua," a five-reel Shubert feature with Vivian Martin in the leading role.

"DIPLOMACY."

With a cast remarkable for its many distinguished names, headed by three of Charles Frohman's best liked stars, Mr. Frohman's tri-star revival of Victorien Sardou's "Diplomacy" comes to the Oliver Thursday evening. The coming of any of the Frohman players in the course of a theatrical season is an event of interest, but the arrival of three at once, and these three such eminent favorites as William Gillette, Miss Blanche Bates and Miss Marie Doro.

partakes something of the nature of a remarkable occasion. Extra importance is added to the association of these three players since it marks the return of professional activity of Mr. Gillette, after a retirement which at one time threatened to be permanent. Mr. Frohman's success in inducing Mr. Gillette to again appear is a matter for congratulation among playgoers who have the welfare of the American theater at heart.

AT THE LASALLE.

The LaSalle presents today Miss Marion Leonard in "Moth Love," a supreme drama of heart interest in six interesting scenes. The story concerns a pretty young girl who is a very talented violinist, and wins a scholarship in a school of music. In the village is a banker and deacon of a church of whom everybody is afraid. He convinces the father of the girl that music is leading her astray, and declares that the only way to save her is to make her his wife.

The father falls dead at the wedding. A year later a child is born. The young wife leads a life of sorrow and abuse. The husband takes her violin away from her and refuses her girl friends permission to come and see her. When she rebels, he drives her out of the house. She goes to the city and makes a great name for herself as a musician. Her husband, chagrined at her success, tries to worry her. He sends her a box of white crepe, intimating that their baby is dead. Being unable to stand the strain, she hurries home. He refuses her any information but takes her to the cemetery where there is a freshly made grave and makes her believe her child is buried there. Friends intercede in her behalf, and she finds her child is alive and well.

NO PERFORMANCE TODAY.

There will be no performance of the Pearl Stock company at the Oliver tonight on account of a lecture, contracts for which were signed previous to the date when the stock company was secured. However, tomorrow night the engagement will be resumed, the current week's offering being John P. Ritter's gripping domestic comedy-drama, "The House of Lies," rife with sincere human interest. The Pearl Stock company has proved an instantaneous success. On no other occasion has so much favorable comment been evoked by a popular-priced attraction in such short space of time. No other stock company has offered South Bend playgoers such a pretentious production as Messrs. Webster and Vickery's players are presenting at the Oliver this week, and consequently generous patronage is anticipated, now that the lenten depression is over.

Nearly every city the size of ours supports a good stock company, and judging by the excellent line of high royalty New York companies announced for early production, there is little doubt but that the stock season will be an unqualified success. Quite a number of season ticket orders are being booked, now that the merit of the attraction has been demonstrated the public.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

The Majestic started off Easter week with a splendid bill of musical comedy, presenting "The Tenderfoot," with appropriate costumes, original songs and novelty comedy effects. As originally produced by Richard Carle this breezy western musical drama was a big success. In the hands of the Ralston company the lively story, the pleasing songs and the dashing dances are given adequate presentation. All of the big song hits have been retained, including "I'm a Peaceable Party," sung with good effect by E. R. Ralston. "The Tortured Thomas Cat," a splendid trio number, was presented by Messrs. Schooley, Raye and Ralston. Fred Dunham, with the Spanish ballad, "Alamo Love," Miss Ellis with "Adios," and Miss Brandon with "Only a Kiss" scored decided hits while the girl chorus in striking western costumes added much to the entertainment.

AT THE COLONIAL.

A two-reel story of the struggles of "Ex-convict 4287" is told in an interesting manner at the Colonial today and the sympathies of the audience are quickly won by the sincere efforts of a man who is trying to go right. Dainty little Helen Badgley, one of the best child actresses now appearing on the screen has the title role in a one-reel picture shown today entitled, "Little Bobby."

BRIDE OF FOUR DAYS IS VICTIM OF BLAZE

TOLEDO, O., April 5.—After hours of search in the ruins of the Niagara hotel annex, which was destroyed by fire Sunday morning, firemen found the body of Mrs. John F. Frye, 26 years old, of Adrian, Mich., a bride of four days. Her husband is missing. It is believed his body lies with many others under the tons of debris.

Police began ripping out walls and eliminating the debris in an effort to locate possible missing bodies. There were 175 people in the hotel when the fire broke out shortly after midnight. Many have not been accounted for.

Fire Capt. Thomas E. Tuile fell three stories and was buried under brick and timbers. It is believed his back is broken. Many of the guests leaped to nearby roofs and suffered only minor hurts. The fire escapes became red hot and more than 20 people are in the hospitals suffering from burned feet.

"It's Always STAR When Good Fellows Get Together"

Men Who Chew Are Men Who DO

THE men who built the Panama Canal—thousands of robust, clear thinking, quick-acting workmen, and hundreds of skilful, far-seeing engineers—made thinking easier and labor lighter by chewing tobacco while at work.

For many years men from other countries—non-tobacco chewing men—tried to build the Panama Canal. They couldn't stand the strain, their machines "fell down" at critical moments—their best attempts failed. Our American men tried—men who are "chewers and doers." They built the Panama Canal.

Men who work with a pick or a pen; on steam-rollers or skyscrapers, chew and boost STAR TOBACCO, THE THICK, TASTY PLUG.

STAR is the leading brand of the World. A year's output would build a road of STAR plugs, 23 feet wide, along the entire route of the Panama Canal, and there would be over 200,000 one pound plugs left over!
